

Expression of Interest – Response to the Report on the Truth and Reconciliation Commission Taskforce
2016-2018

The Steering Committee on Canada's Archives (SCCA) along with Ms. Erica Hernandez-Read, Taskforce Leader are seeking participants for the Response to the Report on the Truth and Reconciliation Commission (TRC) Taskforce. This opportunity will allow participants to guide the work on a national initiative that will ensure that the Canadian archival community can better respond to future opportunities and challenges.

Broadly speaking, work will seek to undertake an analysis of relevant recommendations in the Report, and to create options for a response and related action plan in collaboration with First Nations, Inuit and Métis in all areas of Canada.

DETAILS

- * Membership is open to the Canadian archival community, as well as those with an interest in Canadian archives;
- * Participation on these taskforces is voluntary;
- * Every effort will be made to accommodate both Official Languages of Canada;
- * The majority of the work will be done electronically or via teleconferences;
- * Participation on the taskforces will progress over the next 12 months;
- * Participation is limited to 12 members, selected by the Taskforce Chair and will be based on building a team of diverse archival experience and pertinent interest and expertise.

RESPONSIBILITIES

- * Under the guidance of the Taskforce Chair, members will be responsible for drafting a project charter, which will be presented for approval, to the SCCA.
- * The project charter will include the scope, objectives and deliverables for the priority;
- * Once approved, taskforce members will be responsible for implementing the work identified in the project charter, which will be presented to the SCCA, quarterly.

DEADLINE

- * Please express your interest before August 1st, 2016. Participants will be contacted by August 8th, 2016 with more information.

CONTACT

If you are interested in joining this taskforce or require additional information, please contact:

Lara Wilson, MA, MAS

Chair, Steering Committee on Canada's Archives

(250) 472-4480

ljwilson@uvic.ca